

Awards and Medals

The ACT Rural Fire Service Chief Officer has issued this guideline under Section 38(1) of the Emergencies Act 2004 – A Chief Officer may determine standards and protocols.

Purpose

The ACT Rural Fire Service (ACTRFS) values the contribution of all members and formally acknowledges this contribution through a range of awards and medals. This guideline describes the requirements and process for nomination and approval of awards and medals in the ACT RFS.

Applicability

This guideline is applicable to all members, staff and volunteers, of the ACTRFS (the Service), including members of ACT Parks and Conservation Services (PCS) brigade. It does not include the requirement and process for the National Medal, see 3.3.3 National Medal Guideline.

Background

This guideline applies to the following awards and medals:

- ACT RFS Long Service Medal
- ACT RFS Chief Officer's Awards
- Australian Fire Service Medal (AFSM)
- ACT Community Protection Medal.

Long Service Medal

The Long Service Medal (LSM) recognises the service of current volunteer and salaried members of the ACTRFS. It is awarded after 10 years of eligible service, with additional awards for each additional 10-year period. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recipients receive a medal, miniature medal and ribbon bar after the first 10 years. • Rosette impellers and clasps are awarded for each subsequent 10 years of service.

Who is eligible?	All members of the ACT RFS who meet the length of service criteria as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ACTRFS volunteers • ACTRFS staff members • ACTRFS firefighters with the ACT PCS brigades. Eligible members must attain their anniversary of service before 31 March to be eligible for a Long Service Medal that year.
Eligible Service	A person has “eligible service” if throughout the period of their service, they have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • maintained the required level of training and skills to fulfil their role as a member of the ACTRFS • maintained a satisfactory ACTRFS record.
Determining length of service	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Length of service is calculated from the member’s commencement date with the ACTRFS. • Former members who re-joined the Service after 1 January 2012 are eligible to have their service prior to 1 January 2012 recognised. • Breaks in service do not count towards the LSM. • Seasonal or ‘fire season’ firefighters will have their period of service recognised on a pro-rata basis.
Who can nominate a member?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brigade Captains and Presidents • Senior Director, EPSDD Fire Management Unit • ACTRFS Chief Officer (ACTRFSCO). Self-nominations are not accepted.

How to nominate a member	Use the LSM Nomination Form (Appendix A). Ensure all details are complete and accurate. Ensure all eligibility criteria are met Submit the nomination form by due date each year.
Approval	ACTRFS Membership Officer will review nominations. The ACTRFS CO will review and approve nominations.
Presentation of medals	All service awards will be presented at an Annual Awards ceremony. Award recipients who do not attend this event will be presented with their awards at their Brigade AGM or at a later date. Only ribbon bars of other awards should be worn at the presentation ceremony.

Chief Officer's Awards

The Chief Officer's Awards recognise outstanding contribution by members, individually or as a unit, to the Service or the ACT community.

The awards take the form of a high quality warrant (Certificate) that states the nature of the award, the person's name/list of persons and date of issue.

The awards are:

- Chief Officer's Commendation for Exemplary Service
- Chief Officer's Unit Citation for Exemplary Service
- Chief Officer's Commendation for Diligent Service.

All awards may be conferred posthumously.

Who is eligible?	All members of the ACTRFS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ACT RFS volunteers • ACTRFS staff members • ACTRFS firefighters with PCS brigades.
Commendation for Exemplary Service	To recognise service by an individual member of a meritorious ¹ nature, or outstanding actions in relation to service duties, administrative leadership or exemplary performance of a specific difficult project or task.
Unit Citation for Exemplary Service	Awarded to brigade crews, groups or organised units to recognise outstanding service of a meritorious nature, such as group actions in relation to service duties, group work performance, or other outstanding or meritorious service.

¹ Meritorious means an undertaking that is deserving of reward or commendation and can apply to an individual or team effort but does not apply to diligent service.

Commendation for Diligent Service	Awarded to one member of each Brigade whom the nominator considers to have been the most diligent ² member throughout the year.
Who can nominate a member?	Any ACT RFS member can submit a nomination for these awards. Brigades are encouraged to self-nominate for the Unit Citation for Exemplary Service. Self-nominations are not accepted for individual awards.
How to nominate a member	Use the appropriate Nomination Form (Appendices B or C). Ensure all details are complete and accurate. Include as much detail as possible to support the nomination. Submit the nomination to the ACTRFS Membership Officer by the due date each year. Note: late nominations will not be accepted.
Acknowledgement and approval	ACTRFS Honours and Award Committee (the Committee) assesses all nominations and recommends recipients to the ACTRFS CO. The Committee will acknowledge receipt of each nomination to the member who proposed the nomination. The Committee is comprised of ACTRFS volunteers, staff and a community member and is established by the CO under the ACT RFS Honour and Awards Committee Charter and Terms of Reference.
Presentation of awards	All service awards will be presented at an Annual Awards ceremony each year. Award recipients who do not attend this event will be presented with their awards at their Brigade AGM or at a later date.

Australian Fire Service Medal

The Australian Fire Service Medal (AFSM) is part of the Australian Honours and Awards system. More information is available at: https://www.pmc.gov.au/government/its-honour/australian-fire-service-medal. The AFSM is an individual award for distinguished service by members of a State or Territory fire service, with one medal awarded annually to an ACTRFS member. The recipient is also entitled to use the post nominal 'AFSM' placed after their name where appropriate.
--	--	---

² Diligent means a constant and persistent commitment to duty and applies to an individual volunteer member.

Distinguished service is demonstrated by leadership, dedication, achievement, commitment and promotion of a fire service.

The ACTRFS is entitled to nominate one member for an AFSM each year.

The ACT AFSM may be awarded as part of either the Australia Day Honours or Queen’s Birthday Honours. It is conferred by the Governor-General on the recommendation of the responsible Territory Minister.

This award may be conferred posthumously.

Who is eligible?	All members of the ACTRFS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ACTRFS volunteers • ACTRFS staff members including the ACTRFS CO • ACTRFS firefighters with EPSDD.
Who can nominate a member?	Any ACTRFS member can submit a nomination for this award with the endorsement of their Brigade Captain or President. The ESA Commissioner can nominate a member of the ACTRFS. Self-nominations are not accepted. Any person nominated should not be approached for information or advised of their nomination.
How to nominate a member	The ACTRFS Membership Officer will call for nominations and nominations are to be submitted using the appropriate Nomination Form (Appendix D). Ensure all details are complete and accurate. Include as much detail as possible to support the nomination. Submit the nomination to the ACTRFS CO by the due date requested. Note: late nominations will not be accepted.
Checking the nomination	The ACTRFS CO reviews each nomination for completeness, correctness and that all required signatures have been obtained.
Recommendation	The ACTRFS CO reviews the nomination against these criteria and if endorsed, makes a recommendation on merit to the ACT Minister for Police and Emergency Services. The Minister for Police and Emergency Services makes the final recommendation to the Honours Secretariat by the due date:
Confidentiality	All nominations are strictly confidential, and all information provided will be used to assist the CO and Minister in considering the merits of the nomination. No information will be released concerning the progress or process of a nomination, including unsuccessful nominations or the reasons a nomination was not successful. It is important that the person being nominated is not aware of the nomination.

Notifications	The recipient will be notified in writing by the Honours Secretariat of the offer of an award. The name will be announced and published on either Australia Day or the Queen's Birthday, as appropriate. Nominees may accept or decline the award, and if declined, this will be a matter between them and the Honours Secretariat.
Presentation of AFSM	Normally the Governor-General presents the AFSM at an Investiture Ceremony at Government House. Only ribbon bars of other awards should be worn at the presentation ceremony.
Cancellation and reinstatement	The Governor-General may cancel the AFSM and may restore the award so cancelled. If cancelled, the name of the recipient will be erased from the register and the person shall return the medal to the Registrar at the Honours Secretariat. If a cancelled award is reinstated, the Registrar will restore the entry in the register.

Community Protection Medal

The Community Protection Medal is awarded to members of the ACT Emergency Services to recognise an individual's sustained distinguished or outstanding service to the ACT community through their involvement with the agency. This medal can only ever be awarded to any person once, regardless of whether they work or volunteer in more than one of the ACT's Emergency Services or Policing. This award will not be conferred posthumously, unless the recipient dies after ACT Minister for Police and Emergency Services has endorsed their nomination.
---	--

Who is eligible?	All members of the ACTRFS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ACTRFS volunteers • ACTRFS staff members • ACTRFS firefighters with PCS brigades. The recipient must be an employee or active volunteer at the time they are formally nominated in writing. Unsuccessful nominations lapse each year, however people can be nominated in subsequent years if they have not previously been awarded this medal.

Who can nominate a member?	Any ACTRFS member can submit a nomination for this award. Self-nominations are not accepted.
How to nominate a member	Use the appropriate Nomination Form (Appendix E). Ensure all details are complete and accurate. Include as much detail as possible to support the nomination. Submit the nomination to the ACTRFS CO. For assistance, contact the ACTRFS Membership Officer.
Assessing the nominations	All nominations must be forwarded to the Recommending Committee. The Recommending Committee consists of ESA Commissioner, ACTRFS, Chief Officer ACT Fire & Rescue, Chief Officer ACT Ambulance, Chief Officer ACT State Emergency Service and the ACT Chief Police Officer. The Committee assesses all nominations and recommends a recipient based on merit to the Minister for Police and Emergency Services by the first week of February each year. Assessment is based on the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • merit is the main assessment criterion • sustained distinctive or outstanding service³ • length of service, rank or title are not considerations • while not a bravery award, specific brave acts may be considered if they form part of the overall sustained distinguished or outstanding service • the recipient must have been an employee or active volunteer in the relevant agency sometime during the previous 12 months and have been so at the time of nomination. Unsuccessful nominations will lapse each year, however if a nomination is unsuccessful, that person may be re-nominated in subsequent years.
Presentation of medal	Presented by the Minister for Police and Emergency Services, or designated representative, at a ceremony nominally held in March each year. Only ribbon bars of other awards should be worn at the presentation ceremony.
Revocation and reinstatement	The Recommending Committee may seek the revocation, or the reinstatement, of the medal to a recipient, by recommendation to the Minister.

³ Sustained distinguished or outstanding service is regarded as service well above the normal requirements of duties over a lengthy period, and may include a special achievement or success in the performance of duty in difficult or unusual circumstances.

	Revocation may be requested if the Recommending Committee forms the belief that a recipient has engaged in unethical behaviour or improper conduct that may bring discredit to the award. If this occurs, the relevant Chief Officer will notify the person of the revocation or reinstatement and provide the reason. The recipient will be offered an opportunity to make a written or oral defence to the Recommending Committee. The committee will consider the matter and forward its findings and the recipient's defence (if supplied) to the Minister for consideration. Medal recipients should return their medal and all components, when notified of the revocation.
Loss or damage	If a medal is lost, stolen or damaged, the recipient may make written application to the Minister for a replacement medal.

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY COMMUNITY PROTECTION MEDAL NOMINATION FORM

The ACT Community Protection Medal recognises staff or volunteers in the Territory's Police Service, Ambulance Service, Fire & Rescue Service, Rural Fire Service and State Emergency Service.. The Community Protection Medal is awarded for "sustained distinguished or outstanding service to the ACT Community." Eligibility extends to both uniformed personnel and public servants in these agencies. The objective of the award is to recognise outstanding contributions made by dedicated and committed people who serve and protect the community through their involvement in an emergency agency.

Only one award can be made to any individual and they must be an employee or active volunteer with their Agency at the time of nomination.

Anyone may complete a nomination and submit it to either the Chief Police Officer, the Emergency Services Agency Commissioner or to one of the four Chief Officers. These people, along with a community representative, will meet once a year to consider all nominations. Recommendations will be forwarded to the Minister for Police and Emergency Services. The Minister's decision is final.

Medals will be awarded yearly on the closest working day to Canberra Day.

Unsuccessful nominations will need to be resubmitted for consideration in the following year(s).

NOMINATION FORM

CASE FOR NOMINATION

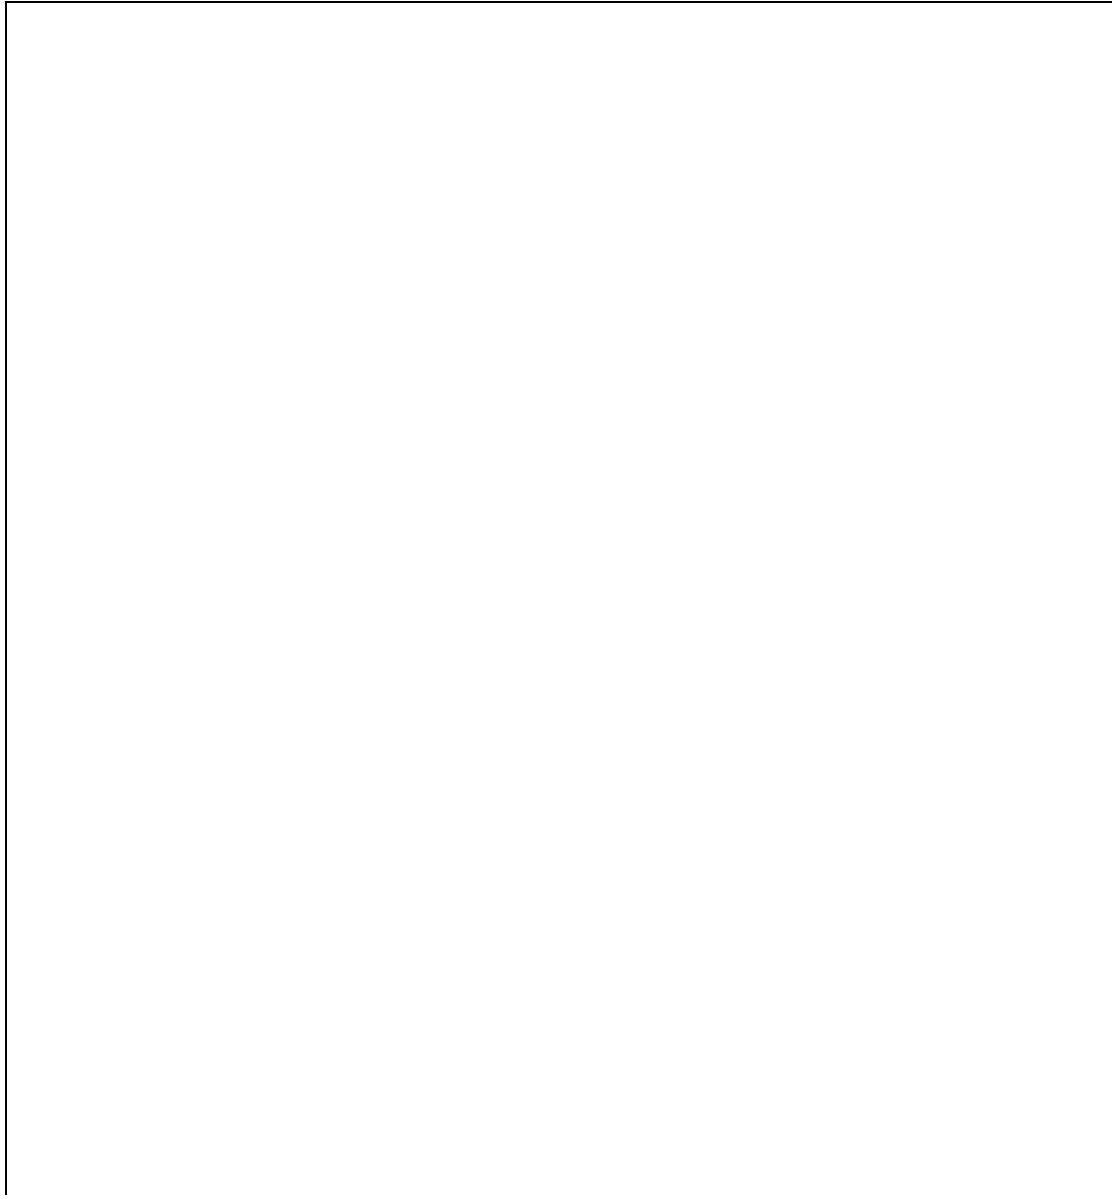

Please enclose a case for why the nominee is considered worthy of recognition by an award of the ACT Community Protection Medal. The case can either be written in the space below or can be attached on a separate document. It is important that nominations take into account the criteria which must be utilised by the Recommending Committee in their deliberations:

- The Medal is to recognise sustained distinguished or outstanding service.
- All nominations are assessed on merit
- Sustained distinguished or outstanding service is regarded as service well above and beyond the normal requirements of duties over a lengthy period, and may include a special achievement(s) or success in the performance of duty in difficult or unusual circumstances.
- The Medal is not a long service medal.
- The Medal is not about rank or title.
- The Medal is not a bravery award, however specific brave acts may be considered if they constitute part of the overall sustained distinguished or outstanding service.
- The recipient must be an employee or an active volunteer with their Agency at the time of nomination

Nomination must not exceed the space provided.
